Draft Notfn of holidays under the Negotiable Instruments Act during 1936 is submitted. This is based on the above two lists.

The following paras explains the variations made in the draft submitted.

Monday & Tuesday the 13th & 14th January have been declared as Pongal holidays in Madras. 14th alone has been declared in Mysore. The latter has been adopted in the draft.

5th & 6th March are declared as partial holidays on account of Rabi'ul Awwal. The latter also has been adopted in the draft notfn as the Madras Govt have come to know that 13th April has been notified as a partial holiday on account of Tamil New Year's day in Madras hence. This has been ~~omitted~~ included in the Easter Holidays
